Gala in Hell was the title of a series of cultural programmes the last one of which was held at Saam house.

Organised by Soussan Farrokhnia & Soudabeh Farrokhnia, these monthly programmes of poetry reading, cultural lectures and live music, realised a farfetched dream of exiled Iranian artists.

The programme brought together these artists to exchange ideas, and to share their views and thoughts for six years between 1997-2003.

The name of the series was inspired by a classic Iranian movie with same title: Gala in Hell.
